Laid to Rest

Thursday noon the remains of the late S.W. Thompson arrived, accompanied by his sons, A.W. and E.G. Thompson from Grand Rapids. They were met at the depot by S.C. Thompson, family and quite a number of people and escorted to the grave. Father Hines conducted the services.

S.W. Thompson came here in 1869; he conducted a lumber business in Grand Traverse Co., and at Green Lake, for 18 years and is well and favorably known by all; he was a man who made friends everywhere. Of late years he had made the Pacific coast his home, but for a while he had been residing with his children in Grand Rapids and Manistee. He was well and able to cast his vote on election day, and it was a great surprise to everyone to hear of his death which resulted from abscess of the lungs superinduced by la grippe.

Six children survive him, five sons and one daughter, Byron Thompson, who is South now but his home is at Grand Rapids, A.W. Thompson Mrs. Lillie M. Johnson, of Grand Rapids, E.G. Thompson, at Leganier, Indiana, John Thompson, of Colorado, and Stacy Thompson, of this city.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved children in this sad hour of affliction.

Grand Rapids (MI) Times

Sat. Sept. 7, 1907

transcribed from microfilm

B.R. Thompson, the lumber dealer, is being slobbered over and his picture published in the dailies simply because he has shuffled off the mortal coil and gone to another plane. This is nauseous for no one knows of any good he did. On the contrary he was an old reprobate. But these dimes and dollars are wonderfully potent.

Manistee (MI) Daily Advocate

Sept. 3, 1907

Mr. S.C. Thompson was hastily called to Grand Rapids yesterday on account of the death of his brother, Leon Thompson, a rich lumberman of that place.

Funeral Services were held Wednesday afternoon

Stricken with apoplexy on Tuesday evening, December 17, while listening to his radio, Edwin G. Thompson, founder of the Ligonier Leader, and editor of this newspaper since its first issue in the Spring of 1880, died at his home on Martin Street, Sunday, January 6, 1936, at 4:00 o'clock p.m. His condition at first was not considered serious, but the paralysis, following the stroke, gradually spread over his body and death followed. He was 81 years and 10 days of age.

Born in Clearfield County, Pa., on December 26, 1854, the son of Stacy W. and Elizabeth Thompson, he spent his early childhood on a farm near Clearfield, Pa., where he acquired the rudiments of an education, later by self-education, advancing far enough to become a teacher.

At the age of 14, with his brothers, Stacy, Jr. and Byron, he started westward, locating first in Michigan, where he served a three-year's apprenticeship as a printer. Continuing in the printing business, he held positions on newspapers in Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin, and Iowa, finally locating in Sturgis, Michigan, where in 1879, he was engaged in publishing the Saturday Evening Leader.

Prominent republicans in Ligonier induced him to move to this city and start a newspaper, and on June 4th, 1880, the first issue of The Ligonier Leader was published under his editorship with a circulation of 600 copies. The newspaper was a success from the start and has continued to be so.

Mr. Thompson continued as editor of The Ligonier Leader until 1920, when he entered into partnership with his youngest son, Leland, and the paper as since been published under the editorship of E.G. Thompson and Son. The Leader was first located in the Ackerman Building in the second floor room, now occupied by the office of Dr. F.N. Stratton. In 1882 the office was moved to the second floor of the Schrock building at Second and Calvin streets, then just completed, where it remained until February 1928, when Mr. Thompson and his sons purchased the Woodruff building opposite the former location, moving to the first floor of that building, where they have since remained.

On November 27, 1874, he was united in marriage with Esther M. Barnes in Fenton, Mich., and to them was born one son, Wilbur. Mrs. Thompson died August 1, 1879, and on December 8, 1881, he was united in marriage with Ella Kennedy at Sturgis, Mich. There were five children born to them, Martha, Grace, James, Edwin G., Jr., (Ted), Leland and Herbert. Herbert died in infancy, Ted at the age of 7 years and Martha in 1927, following a short illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Thompson died in the fall of 1929, and Mr. Thompson, with the exception of one year spent in the home of his son, Leland, has continued to live at his Martin Street home with Miss Ardath Furst as his housekeeper, who in those years has given him the affection, care and comfort of a daughter. His appreciations of a family and the younger generation was an outstanding characteristic of his life, and in 1913, with all his children gone from home, he and Mrs. Thompson took into their home a young friend, Miss Matilda Reimer, of Chicago, who remained with them several years, graduating from the high school here.

He was a member of the Methodist Church of Sturgis, Mich., and during his residence here was a loyal and devoted worker in the Methodist Church of this city, being a member of the Board of Trustees for the past 50 years. He never held any public office except for two terms when he served on the Ligonier School Board, and two terms as Secretary of the Indiana Editorial Association, but his life was spent in devotion to the highest and best principles of good citizenship, and he worked untiringly for the things that would tend to make Ligonier a better place in which to live. He was a charter member of the Ligonier Chamber of Commerce, but for the past three years had been inactive in the affairs of that organization because of his declining health.

He was a loyal Republican, casting his first vote for Rutherford B. Hayes in 1876, and never missed voting at any election following that time. He devoted his time, talents and business to the Republican party, and for this he received no reward other than the knowledge of a work well and honestly done to the best of his ability.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, from the Methodist Episcopal Church, with Rev. G.H. Bachelor, a close personal friend, and Rev. C.C. Wischmeier, officiating. Burial was made in Oak Park Cemetery.

Surviving relatives include one daughter, Mrs. F.E. Pfeiffer, of Washington, D.C., three sons, Wilbur H. Thompson, of Dayton, O., James S. Thompson, of New York City, and Leland K. Thompson, of

- Her obituary was published in the Manistee (MI) Daily News on 8 May 1906 in Manistee, Manistee County, Michigan, United States.⁹¹

Just before four o'clock this afternoon word was received by phone of the death of Mrs. S.C. Thompson at her home in Parkdale. She had been sick only a comparatively short time. Mr. Thompson is at Belle Fourche, S.D., but is expected home at once.

- Her obituary was published in the Manistee (MI) Daily News on 9 May 1906 in Manistee, Manistee County, Michigan, United States.⁹² Mrs. S.C. Thompson Esteemed by Wide Acquaintanceship

Mrs. Stacy C. Thompson, who died at her Parkdale home at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, was for many years a resident of Manistee and its suburb. As Ida May Goodenow she married Mr. Thompson Dec. 21 in the City of Grand Rapids, and they soon came to Manistee to live. Their first acquaintance was formed at Albion College, where both were students.

Mrs. Thomson was born June 2, 1956 in Cook County, Illinois. She was the mother of three children, Mrs. Herbert K. Randall, Mrs. Albert Porter, and Walter Thompson, all of Parkdale. An adopted daughter, Florence, also survives her. Her only other relative is an adopted sister, Mrs. William O. Cole of New York.

Mrs. Thompson was a member of the Manistee Baptist Church, and of Manistee Hive No. 264 L.O.T.M.M. For some time she had been in failing health, but no intimation of her real weakness was given. Bright's disease, probably hastened by weakness of the heart, was the cause of death.

The funeral will be held at the home Saturday afternoon at three o'clock and interment will be at Oak Grove. Mrs. Thompson leaves many warm and sympathetic friends, who knew and admired her for her fine personality, and useful and faithful life. Mr. Thompson, who has been at Belle Fourche for two weeks, is hurrying homeward.

- Her obituary was published in the Manistee Daily News on 11 May 1906 in Manistee, Manistee County, Michigan, United States.⁹³

The members of Manistee Hive No. 264 are requested to meet at Elks hall Saturday afternoon at one o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late Mrs. S.C. Thompson.

J.A. Thompson, Postmaster Here Years Ago, Dies
Brother of S.C. Thompson passes at Summit, NJ; was 73 years old

Word was received here today by S.C. Thompson, well-known local real-estate man, of the death of his brother, John A. Thompson, a former postmaster of Manistee, at Summit, N.J., last evening. Details of his death have not been learned. Mr. Thompson was 73 years old.

He will be remembered by many of the city's older residents. Born in Clearfield County, PA, on July 1, 18__ as a young man he came to this city in 1875. He was employed at that time as a clerk in the local postoffice when Dr. E. Ellis was postmaster. Later in 1882, he himself was appointed postmaster, a position which he held until 1888. It was in 1884 at Manistee that he was married to Miss Ella Long, daughter of L.B. Long, a well-known local contractor, with whom he organized the present Manistee Manufacturing Co. He also erected the building now occupied by Lloyd & Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left Manistee for Denver, Colo., later taking up residence in New York City. His wife preceded him in death five years ago.

For more than 25 years Mr. Thompson was a Wall Street broker but retired from active business two years ago.

He has visited Manistee several times in recent years, and S.C. Thompson was to see him at his New Jersey home only recently.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Faith Sayles, also of Summit, N.J.; one sister, Mrs. Lillian Johnson of Battle Creek and two brothers, E.G. Thompson, publisher of the Leader, of Ligonier, Ind., and S.C. Thompson, this city.

Mr. Thompson was a member of the local Masonic Lodge during his residence here and at the time of his death was a member of the Summit lodge.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced though burial will take place at Summit.

John married Ella M. Long, daughter of Lewis B. Long and Unknown, in Sep 1882 in Manistee, Manistee County, Michigan, United States.^{140,141} Ella was born in 1862 in Michigan¹⁴² and died on 6 Feb 1924 in New York City, New York County, New York, United States¹⁴³ at age 62.

Mrs. John A. Thompson Passes
Suddenly at Hotel Commodore

Word has been received of the death last Wednesday in New York city of Mrs. Ella A. Thompson, wife of John A. thompson, a former Manistee woman known to a large number of the city's older residents.

Mrs. Thompson, who was 60 years of age, died suddently Wednesday night at the Hotel Commodore in New York, which had been her home in recent years. She was born in Manistee, where she spent her childhood and young womanhood, and was married to Mr. Thompson, a brother of Judge Stacy C. Thompson. Her father, the late L.B. Long, was a leading contractor of his day, and built the Central school, now the Woodrow Wilson High school. He also organized the Manistee Manufacturing company, now one of the city's major industries.

Her husband, John A. Thompson, also is well remembered here. He was a Manistee resident for 16 years and served two terms as postmaster in the eighties. Some years ago he retired from the real estate brokerage business in New York, and he and Mrs. Thompson had since made their home at the Hotel Lucerne there.

Beside her husband Mrs. Thompson is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Faith Sayles of Berkeley Heights, N.J.

Former Resident Dies at Detroit
Mrs. Claudia Randall, Daughter of S.C. Thompson, Passes

Mrs. Claudia G. Randall, wife of Herbert K. Randall, and a daughter of S.C. Thompson, local realtor, died at her home in Detroit yesterday afternoon following an illness of nearly one year.

The body will be brought here for burial in the family lot in Oak Grove cemetery and brief services will be held at the home of her father at 365 First street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Randall was born in Manistee in 1875 and resided here until 10 years ago when the family moved to Detroit. Her mother, Ida M. Thompson, preceded her in death in 1906. She is survived by her husband, a son Ray, a brother Walter S. Thompson of Detroit, a sister, Bessie B. Porter of Oakland, Calif., and her father in this city.

(Compiler's Note: There is no mention of Claudia's daughter Bessie Randall Stoelt, or 3-month-old granddaughter Mary Elizabeth Stoelt in this obituary. Evidently there was a bitter estrangement between Herbert and his daughter Bessie.)

TWO MANISTEE MEN ABOARD BARGE LOST IN ERIE Telegram Says Local Men Were Saved When Barge Butters Sank

Manistee men: Herbert K. Randall, Chief Engineer
Varvey Raatz, Fireman

The above-named Manistee and Ludington men were aboard the steamer Marshall Butters when she went down in Lake Erie last night.

Herbert K. Randall of this city, chief engineer, is known to have been saved. Mrs. Randall received a telegram from him this afternoon sent from Painsville, O. The telegram stated that all members of the crew had been saved.

The statement that all men were rescued is contradictory to the dispatch from Detroit.

The Marshall Butters was well known in Manistee. The boat originally was owned by Marshall Butters of Ludington, but later became the possession of the Stearns Lumber company. She was a barge about 200 feet long.

For years she has been trading from the local port. Last winter she was tied up here. The Manistee Iron Works installed a new boiler. Her stays were strengthened and she was given considerable interior repairing.

Mr. Randall was aboard the Marshall Butters years ago, but later left her. He shipped out with her this spring and was aboard her throughout the season.

RESCUE CREW FROM LOST MARSHALL BUTTERS WITH WIND BLOWING HURRICANE

Arriving home in the clothes in which he was saved, without vest and in his working cap, Herbert K. Randall, chief engineer of the Marshall Butters which went down in Lake Erie last week, tells a thrilling story of the rescue of the crew.

"It was a terrible thing, but I don't think that a man of us entertained fear. We were too busy, each man working for himself, to be afraid of the possible ending," said Randall last night.

"When we passed through Detroit there was a fresh southeast wind blowing, but not strong enough to detain us any until we had passed the southeast shoal by about 45 minutes. It was at 12:30 Friday afternoon that the squall struck us. We were six or eight miles from the shoal light at the time. When it was first noticed that a storm was coming the captain came aft and asked us to work her up stronger. This took us about 20 minutes. Heavy seas began to roll about this time and we noticed that the ship was leaking, taking in water fast.

"I understood what this meant and went forward and asked Capt. McClure to put her into the sea or before it. Instead of doing this Capt. McClure put her in the trough, in an attempt to throw her deck load off and lighten her. We were loaded with lath and a small amount of lumber above decks and had we been successful in getting rid of this load we might have ridden the gale longer. As it was she would not throw and we ran in the trough for a few minutes longer, watching the water meanwhile. We had the pumps going but the water kept gaining on us steadily and I again reported to the captain.

"We had seen the steamer Billings about five miles to leeward and Capt. McClure blew the alarm signal. They apparently did not hear us, for they paid no attention. In about 15 minutes another alarm signal was blown and then another. Finally the watchman on the Billings saw the steam from our whistle and the boat came about and started for us at once.

"The steamer Hartwell had been in the distance all this while and seeing the Billings was heading for us, she also changed her course and came towards us, standing to shortly after the Billings had arrived.

"By now the wind was blowing a hurricane, the seas were tremendous and our deck load was going by the board. Heavy pieces of planking were lifted off the deck and sent hurling through the air. Pieces of boards and shingles caught in the whistle, causing it to blow continually. It was a horrible sound and when I could stand it no longer, I risked my life and climbed up to where I could cut the cord.

81. Manistee News-Advocate (Manistee, Michigan), TWO MANISTEE MEN ABOARD BARGE LOST IN ERIE, 21 Oct. 1916.

Descendants of Elizabeth Bloom

"About this time we got the starboard boat launched and eight of the crew, including myself, got in and cast off. The captain of the Hartwell hollered, "Come on with your boat," and we headed for the steamer. It was a terrific pull to get to her. The seas were rolling higher than the house tops - the wind so strong that you had to yell to a man only a few feet away to make him hear you.

"After about 20 minutes we were able to get aboard the Hartwell. Looking back to the Butters we could see the rest of the crew, five men, standing on her deck. I guess we all lost our nerve then. It was awful to see them standing there helpless.

"It was just one-half hour after this that the Butters broke up and went down. A few minutes before she went under the captain and one fireman took to the yawl and the other three jumped into the water.

"The steamer Billings after being compelled to make three circles, picked up three men who were in the water and the captain and fireman got aboard without serious difficulty.

"Remember that all this time the wind was blowing 75 miles an hour and that the seas resembled small mountains. The Billings rolled terribly while standing by to pick us up. It was hard to get aboard without being smashed to pieces against the ship's side.

"The Hartwell turned about and began a run before the wind. She was consigned to Fairport, but it was impossible to make the harbor and she went on to Erie. She turned here and went into the wind. It was 5:30 Saturday afternoon when we finally made the Fairport harbor.

"We had all lost everything we had but were mighty glad to get in as we were."

- Letter: from Hugh Porter, Attorney at Law in Chicago to Manistee Co. Clerk, 9 Feb 1959.¹⁷² from Hugh R. Porter, Attorney at Law in Chicago to Emily Iverson, Deputy County Clerk of Manistee Co., MI

Dear Miss Iverson,

I have your brief letter in re the birth certificate desired of the above birth. I have known the person in question for nearly 40 years and know that she is the child of William and Mary Udell but to furnish proof of that fact might be a problem as my client does not have any living relatives who knew her father and mother.

She was born, Myra Louise Udell, but at the age of 4 or 5 years she was adopted by Stacy C. Thompson and his wife Ida May Thompson and carried the name of Florence Marie Thompson until about 13 years of age when she was re-adopted by her mother, then a widow and probably again carried the name of Udell. Both of these adoptions took place in Manistee and it is quite possible that those proceedings would establish the facts of her birth and true name. Would it be possible to check these adoptions and advise with what results?

I am very well aware of the fact that 65 years ago, all birth recordings in Michigan and Illinois and for that matter in the other 46 States was very incomplete and indefinite, but you and I are not to blame for that.

My client is in destitute circumstances and should be given old age assistance, and I am doing this work for her without compensation and I would very much appreciate any help you may be able to give.

I do feel that these adoptions might throw considerable light on establishing this lady's name and identification.

Very truly yours, Hugh R. Porter

- Letter: from Manistee Judge of Probate to Hugh Porter, Attorney at Law, 11 Feb 1959. In re: UDELL, born to Edward and Eliza May Udell

Dear Sir:

Your letter of February 9th addressed to Emily Iverson, Deputy County Clerk, has been brought to our Court for attention.

Examination of our records show that under date of August 7th, 1897, that Stacy C. Thompson and Ida M. Thompson did declare that Almira Louise Udell, minor child of Edwin R. Udell and Eliza May Udell, was of the age of four years on the 11th of August, 1897, and was adopted by them; that henceforth the child should bear the name of Florence Marie Thompson.

The order for adoption was signed by the Court on the 7th day of August, 1897. The Order was made by the Honorable John H. Grant, the then Judge of Probate of this County.

We have further record showing application for adoption of Florence Marie Thompson by Garrett L. Johnson and Eliza May Johnson showing that the said Florence Marie Thompson was the minor child of Stacy C. Thompson and Ida M. Thompson, deceased, by adoption. The child was at that time thirteen years of age on the 11th day of August, 1906, and the application was filed on the 13th day of August, 1906.

The order for adoption and change of name was signed on the 27th day of August, 1906, by the Honorable John H. Grant, the then Judge of Probate, changing the name of said child from Florence Marie Thompson to Florence Marie Johnson.

If these records will be of any help to your client, photostatic copies of the same could be made and forwarded to you. These photostatic copies would cost $1.00 a page, and would probably be $4.00 covering the application for adoption and the order in each case.

We note in your letter that the person whose birth record you seek to secure was adopted by her mother, then a widow, when she was thirteen years of age. This does not correspond with our records as we have indicated by the statement made to you, and naturally the person would not be carrying the name Udell, but would rather be carrying the name Johnson.

If this would be of assistance to you, kindly advise us.

Very truly yours,
(no signature on this photocopy)

Killed in Vietnam Jan. 30

Marine Lance Cpl. Patrick James McKinley, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. James McKinley of Trenton, former Manistee residents, and nephew of Mrs. Joseph Jach, Sr., 3429 Maplewood rd., died Jan. 30 on Hill 200 in Vietnam when hit by fragments from mortar fire near Quang Nam.

Operating out of Quang Tri Province, Cpl. McKinley was assisting on a volunteer mission with a spotter patrol as a communicator relaying command decisions from headquarters and reporting no combat field conditions.

His last letter, written Jan. 24, to his fiancée, Sue Cline of Lincoln Park, outlined marriage plans.

He planned to extend his enlistment because, according to his mother, the former Gail Thompson of Manistee, he believed strongly in the cause for which he was fighting and because he had become attached to a 9-year-old orphan, Kim, who was the same age as his sister, Julie. Parcels sent to him from home always contained a special present for Kim and the McKinleys intend to continue the project as soon as they can discover where the little girl can be reached.

"Pat was always impressed with the fact that Vietnam children were so grateful for small presents and were able to laugh when the world seemed so grim," Mrs. McKinley said.

Cpl. McKinley, who was graduated from Trenton High School in 1965, is survived by his mother and father, who is a Great Lakes engineer, two older sisters, Kathleen, who teaches school, and Mrs. Michaelleen Orcher of Romulus, and by Julie.

He went to Vietnam in May, 1967, and was slated to be rotated home in three months. He joined the Marines two years ago.

- 60 F iv. Julie McKinley²¹¹ was born about 1958 in Michigan.

Julie married David Sanford.

Gayle next married Dolor D. Boucher²¹² on 27 Jul 1940.²¹² The marriage ended in divorce on 16 Jun 1941.
